Officer's Report – March 2018

New Website for Aldenham Parish Council (see minute no. 82):

The website has been designed and built and is almost fully populated with up to date, relevant content.

To set up a Working Party for the commemoration of 100 years since the end of the First World War (see minute no. 166):

Initial contact has been made with potential organisations and groups who may be interested in organising a joint event to commemorate the anniversary of the end of the First World War. – ongoing.

To set up a Working Party for Arts Festival (see minute no. 155):

The Officer sent an email to Cllr. B. Evans and requesting some suggested dates for an initial meeting of a working party. The proposed date is 26th April. 5/6 people have expressed an interest in joining a working party. – ongoing.

AGENDA ITEM nr. 177 – To discuss Summertime Activities 2018

In previous years APC has held various events in the summer. These events have ranged from a one day event to the last 2 years being held across 5 days in August. The last 2 years have included a bouncy castle, messy play by Hertsmere Children's Centres (formerly Sure Start), sporting activities by Sporting Inspirations (formerly Child UK), face painting and Wildplay by Groundworks. Councillors need to decide whether the same format as the previous 2 years should be followed or whether to do something different for 2018.
